Our Path to Zero – Thank You!

At Enbridge, “Our Path to Zero” represents our commitment to zero injuries, incidents or occupational illnesses. Core to this commitment are the principles that “All employees/contractors are responsible for safety” and “People are the most important element of the health and safety program. Employees and contractors are expected to take personal accountability for their safety, that of their workers, and the safe operation of our assets ...”.

Please accept our appreciation for your company’s safety efforts and achievements while working with us in 2015. We congratulate you on achieving an incident free year with Enbridge and look forward to your continued efforts in 2016.

Sincerely,

Ann Marie Tout
